

Digital print

We print labels and packages on mono and multi-layer films in digital technology.

1. short series, small expenditures, fast implementation
2. no preparation costs (no additional costs of applying changes with each subsequent order)
3. full tonal transitions, perfect colors reproduction, high print quality

- + personalization of packaging
- barcodes, alpha numeric codes etc.
- compostable paints
- printing the proof on the target foil together with the possibility of making changes
- no carcinogenic aromatic amines
- immediately after lamination can begin product packaging process, none the need to season the laminate
- carbon dioxide free technology
- max. print width 740 mm
- mosaic printing - the possibility of compiling different heights of use on one roll

Graphic studio

Comprehensive graphic service in the field of:

- + implementation of graphic designs of packaging, self-adhesive labels ... etc.
- adapting projects to printing techniques
- preparation of graphic grids according to the requirements of packaging machines
- selection of packaging materials for products and packaging systems
- development of materials promotional: business cards, folders, advertisements press releases and others
- large format printing

